"Circulation Books Open to All."

"Circulation Books Open to All."

NIGHT

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 24, 1903.

PRICE ONE CENT.

CAMPBELL SAYS HE WOULD HAVE AIDED LYNCHING

THE REV. R. J. CAMPBELL

Declares the Famous English Clergyman in Discussing Delaware Horror.

CRIME COULD NOT HAVE OCCURRED IN ENGLAND.

Distinguished Visitor Deprecates Law's Delays, Although Averse to Comparison of Methods of Justice as Between England and America.

famous pastor of the City Temple, Lon- abandoned dungeon cell within a few was discussing the Wilmington way. They came from his

The Little Bishop saw the expression face and he added "Yes," with a rising doned cell. They had sneaked off

His mind had been filled with a horror enened-the horror that an Englishman of any overriding of the law. What he knew of the negro's crime and his horrible death at the hands of an infurlated mob had been gathered entirely m a few headlines in the newspapers He knew nothing of the revolting circumstances that attended the killing of Helen Bishop. The papers had told him that her throat had been cut; that the erime had been committed by a negro. He had gone no further. But when he was told to-day the truth he gave utterance to the statement quoted.

Was Reluctant at First.

"I do not feel as though it would be quite proper for me to say anything," said Mr. Campbell when he was first asked if he had any ylews to express on the Wilmington affair. "I don't think it would be proper for me, an the other prisoners had escaped War-Englishman, to set myself up to tell den Van De Carr notified Commissioner

The Yankees never resent anything of that kind, doctor. Most every one is telling them nowadays what to do and how to do it." "All right then," said he with emile, and then he began gravely: "Of course this affair is something beyond an Englishman's comprehension I cannot imagine such an occurrencedeflance of the law. In my country the law is supreme. All are equal before it and in a case of this kind the law would have been permitted to take its way and demand expiation of the criminal according to its provisions. have been aroused and their sensibilities outraged by the afiling of the young woman, but to think of a mob rising and taking her murderer into its own hands as against the authorities would be impossible. I cannot think of such a thing happening. As I said, it would be impossible. Why could not

TWO ESCAPE FROM TOMBS IN BROAD DAY

Trusties" in Prison Break Away to Liberty While More Than Score of Men Employed in Subway Watch Them and Their Three Confederates.

AIL BREAKERS SLIP OUT THROUGH THE BASEMENT.

They Crawl Out on the Pavement and Then Must Have Discarded Their Prison Garb for Clothing Supplied by Confederates.

In broad daylight yesterday afternoon wo priscners aided by three men on he outside escaped from the Tombs. They are Matthew Callahan, of No. 316 West Fourteenth street, and Robert Booth, of No. 122 East Twenty-fifth street, each serving a six months' term for disorderly conduct.

The escape was not discovered until Have Taken a Hand Myself," lock them in their dormitory and found Callahan and Booth missing.

They Were Trusties. The men were sent to the penitentiary in April. They were brought down to the Tombs two weeks ago to do chores about the prison. About thirty men serving time are thus employed contin-uously about the Tombs and they are given a great deal of latitude, inasmuch as most of them are serving short terms

Callahan was placed in the "trusties" restaurant as a bread man. Booth was assigned to duty in the yard. The men tlary and were together whenever their

He Made a Discovery.

Under the old prison stretches a labyrinth of passages through the heavy piles supporting the building. When Callahan had nothing else to do he ex-Rev. Reginald John Campbell, the he discovered that he could reach an feet of Leonard street. The cover of this cell had been removed and all there was between the interior of it and the outer air was a wooden plat form to keep out the rain.

Callahan sent word of his discovery to friends on the outside, and also notified Booth. At 4 o'clock vesterday afternoon through the underground passageway, and no attention was paid to their ab-

Three men appeared at the corner of Leonard and Elm streets at 4 o'clock. One of them carried a big bundle. They walked past the Tombs ruins two or three times, and then, after a short discussion, proceeded to two heavy laundry tubs a few feet from the sidewalk.

They Diverted Suspicion.

working for a few minutes. They replaced the wooden platform and then walked leisurely to the corner. From the fact that the outer clothing of the two prisoners was found in the subway excavation at that point it is supposed of honor. For that reason the marriage that they discarded their prison garb right in the open street and put on other clothing.

After assuring himself that none of the people of the United States their of Corrections Hines. The Commissioner ewn business." cape to Police Headquarters, but on no account to make mention of it to the

The Story Leaked Out.

But it was a matter of common gos sip around the neighborhood to-day and it was not long before an Evening World reporter heard of it. Conversa-World reporter heard of it. Conversation with the subway employees made plain how the escape had been effected. Warden Van De Carr says it would have been impossible for any criminal of importance to have escaped. The trustles, he says, are allowed a great deal of liberty, and were they to take advantage of it more of them could get away while the old Tombs is being form down.

Escapes from the Tombs have been infrequent. None was attempted for ten years up to yesterday. John Myers, a borgiar awaiting sentence, bored a hole in the wall of his cell, four stories above the ground, dropped into the yard by means of a rope made of bedcothes, scaled the outer wall and got away. This was on June 9, 1893.

Few Other Escapes.

it would be impossible. Why could not the people wait in this case? Would she law have failed?"

The Country's Reputation.

There are delays in this country in the administration of justice at times at which the people chafe. They saw such possibilities in this case, evidently.

"Ah, yes," said Mr. Campbell, "I have been told that in America there is in England. I have neen told that somettimes political influence can touch the judiclary; that it has saved men from the nangman's noose.

"In England that could never be. If the man were Mr. Balfour and he had committed a crime for which the law committed a crime for which the law.

(Continued on Second Page.)

The excape of Arthur Flanagan and William Johnson from the West Side Police Court prison on Oct. 28, 1500, was the most sensational in the history of this city. They killed Keeper Hugh Mc. Glovern and almost killed George Wisson, a trusty, Making a rope out of the blankets in their cells, they arranged to climb down sixty feet to the fround. Johnson fell and was killed, Fisragan got away. He was captured in Flisburg and only a few days ago died in the electric chair in Sing Sing for the murder of the keeper.

WILDER, THE HUMORIST, IS

MARSHALL P. WILDER

Ceremony Uniting the Funmaker and Miss Sophie Hanks Is Performed by Dr. Houghton of the Little Church Around the WEDDING TOOK PLACE IN MARCEAU'S STUDIO.

Was the Culmination of a Pretty Romance, Wilder Having Known His Bride Since Her Infancy and Visited at Her Father's Brooklyn Home.

f Theodore C. Marceau, at No. 258 Fifth by long illness. avenue, Rev. Lr. Houghton, of the Lat-the wedding of the little humorist. His father and Dr. Hanks have been life-Brooklyn home.

About this time there came to the home of the Hanks family a baby girl indorses the new policy. She was called Sophie. Marshall Wilder danced heron his knee in infancy and Sophie Cornell Hanks blossomed into a beautiful young womn and one day the humorist awoke to the realization that he was in love with her. She is now twenty years old. Modesty forbade him making known the state of his feelings for a long time, but when he did In order to divert suspicion the five speak he was overjoyed to learn that men appeared as though they were busy his affection was returned. And so they were married.

A few weeks ago when Mr. Marcea was married Mr. Wilder officiated as best man and his present wife was maid heart was performed in Marceau's

Immediately after the ceremony Mr Wilder and his bride started for Boston on their honeymoon. They will make an extended trip before returning to Marshall P. Wilder is probably the most widely known professional entertainer in the country and he has many friends abroad, among them the King queather to Harry W. Watrous, a of England. He was born in Geneva, brother, and Allan W. Adams, a cousin, N. Y., in 1859. Nature was unkind ot as executors in trust, the income to be him when presenting him with a phys ique, but she was lavish in her gifts of Walter W. Watrous's son. Livingsto brain and sunny temperament.

The boy went to schoo in Rochester a general favorite. His father was a physician and wished his son to take up some professional line of work, but the bent of the young man was toward amusing others. For a long time he was compelled to stifle his ambition but at last he secured a hearing in this city and from that day to this he has never wanted for an engagement. Up to 1898 he confined himself to pri vate entertainments. In that year he went on the vaudeville stage and has since performed all over the country He is on speaking terms with almost everybody worth knowing from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

ANOTHER NEGRO LYNCHED.

Rody Riddled with Bullets After Hanging, Following Confession. ELK VALLEY, Term., June 24.-Case Jones, a negro accused of attacking welve-year-old Margaret Bruce, was caught early to-day and immediately taken before his victim, who identified nim. Jones brock down and confesse his crime. He was promptly lynched

"Got the Habit" ..

THE VIRGINIAN WINS THE JUMP

A BRIDECROOM LONG SHOTS WINNERS AT SHEEPSHEAD

SHEEPSHEAD BAY, June 24.—The winners of the last two races this afternoon were very long shots. Thistie Heather, in the sixth, finished first at 60 to 1, and Florham Queen was first in the seventh at 40 to 1. The favorites in both races finished third, and the bookmakers coined money.

Seventh Race—Florham Queen (40 to 1) 1, Flying Jib (3 to 1) Hermis 3. Time-1.53.

AT ST. LOUIS.

Fourth Race-Maister 1, Frank Bell 2, Poseur 3,

AT WASHINGTON PARK.
Fourth Race—Uranium 1, Avoid 2 If You Dare 3.
Fifth Race—Big Ben 1, Serge 2, Airlight 3.

INVADERS AT CLEVELAND—SECOND GAME.
INVADERS 0 0 0
CLEVELAND 1 0 0

At Chicago—End of seventh: Washington, O; Chicago, 4. At St. Louis—End of third: Philadelphia, O; St. Louis, 1. At Detroit-End of firin: Boston, 1; Detroit, O.

ALL NATIONAL LEAGUE GAMES POSTPONED.

IRA D. SANKEY BECOMES ENTIRELY BLIND. The long-failing sight of Ira D. Sankey, the famous "singing evangelist," has deserted him entirely. He will never see again. of Dr. E. F. Hanks, of Brooklyn. The Mr. Sankey has gone from his Brooklyn home to the country for was performed in the studio He is gradually recovering his strength, which was undermined

> MORE MEN CALLED OUT; BUILDING TIE-UP COMPLETE. The trades remaining in the United Board of Building Trades

at a meeting this afternoon in Brevoort Hall decided to call out long friends and when Marshall came the men at work on all the jobs in the city. The first blow will to New York City from Rochester to be struck at the work contracted for by Otto M. Eidlitz, Chairtune Dr. Hanks welcomed him to his man of the Board of Governors of the Building Trades Employers' Association. The Housesmiths' and Bridge Builders' Union

NOT CALLED WIFE WATROUS WILL FOR POSTAL FRAUD

Document, Which May Have Been Written Before Marriage, Leaves Katherine Ballou $5,000.

The will of Walter W. Watrous was filed this afternoon. It was executed Jan. 4, 1901, at Tuxedo Park, In the first paragraph Mr. Watrous bequeaths $5,000 to 'Katherine Floeckher." otherwise known as "Katherin

All the rest of the property is be used for the support and education of Watrous, until he is twenty-one, after which he is to receive all the income and although slightly crippled he was till he is thirty, when he is to receive the principal. Livingston Watrous in now sixteen years old. Robert L. Cutting, attorney for Kath erine Ballou Watrous, followed the will into the Surrogate's Office and was soo buried in its perusal. He would not say whether his client would contest the wil or offer a later will for probate, but Mr. Cutting's manner indicated that a later will than that presented to-day would

The will was accompanied by a petition filed by Fink, Embree & Cobb, of No. 135 Broadway. Nothing affording a suggestion of the value of Mr. Watrous's estate was given in the petition, which says simply day for New York City and vicinity: Cloudy and continuing cool, with occasional rains tonight and Thursday, fresh eastTwo Bills Returned Against the ex-Brooklyn Congressman in Connection with the Sale of Brandt Automatic Cashiers.

WEATHER FORECAST.

Ex-Congressman Edmund H. Deiggs of Brooklyn, this afternoon was indicted by the Federal Grand Jury on charges of having received considerations and compensation from the Brand Automatic Machine Register Company in connection with Post-Office contracts, while the accused was a member of the House of Representatives. The penalty is not less than two years for this offense and forfeiture of office under Government after conviction. The bills were returned against Mr.

Driggs before Judge Thomas in the United States District Court, and, while their exact nature is not known, it is presumed that they are a result of the revelations in the postal investigation. Driggs was admitted to bail in $5,000, which was deposited by William J. Buntling, a former Sheriff of Kings

The former Congressman pleaded no fullty to both indictments and waive

CHILD KILLED BY FALL.

Leonard Miginne, two years old, o No. 330 East Sixty-third street, was killed to-day by a fall from the fourth Takes Mermaid, for Three-Year-Old Fillies, from Eugenia to One.

Mexican Stable's Daisy Green

HERBERT AT ODDS ON WINS THE SECOND RACE.

Talent Gcts a Joit at the Start When the Ten to One Shot, Marjoram,

THE WINNERS.

FIRST RACE-Marjoram (10 to 1) I, Sweet Tone (10 to 1) 2, The Lady Rohesia 3. Time-1.00 3-5.

SECOND RACE-Herbert (9 to 10) I, Locket (10 to 1) 2, Blackstock (7 to 5) 3. Time-1.44.

THIRD RACE.-Daley Green (10 to 1), Eugenia Birch (5 to 2) 2, De kaber 3. Time-1.59 3-5.

(6 to 5) 1; Almanzar (10 to 1) 2; Jim Newman 3. Time-5.57 3-5. FIFTH RACE-Luminosity (9 to

5) 1, Excentral (15 to 1) 2, Lady

FOURTH RACE-The Virginian

Lavish 3. Time-1.09. SIXTH RACE - Thistle Heather (60 to 1) 1, Short Cake (20 to 1) 2, Albertola 3. Time-1.09 1-5.

(Special to The Breaing World.)
SHEEPSHEAD BAY RACE TRACK fune M.-"Pittsburg Phil" arrived at the track late this afternoon. He was accompanied by a tall, powerfully built man. It was said that he was a lawyer. Phil evidently expected to be fused admittance, for he hesitated and looked inquiringly at the guteman. The latter smiled, accepted the badge coupon and the plunger passed in through the gates. Phil said he had nothing to add o his statement of last night. The Mermaid stakes for three-year-old filles went to Daisy Green, a 10 to 1 chance, owned by J. G. Foliansbee, one of the Jockey Club Stewards. Eugenia Burch, the best filly seen last year, made her debut, and she was a warm choice. Though Odom rode her hard, she could never reach Daisy Green, who won by a length and a half. Dekaber a maiden, was third.

August Belmont disclosed a good on n the opening race for two-year-olds in Martoram, a 10 to 1 shot, who fairly ran away from her field. Sweet Tone, nother long chance, was second. The beaten of Herbert gladdened the hearts of the talent by winning the second race.

The suspension of H. S. Wilson, wh ode Tip Gallant in the steeplechase or Saturday, was a surprise. The general opinion was that an injustice had been FIRST RACE.

Five furlongs. Starters, whis. jocks. St.Hif.
Marjoram. 110, Builman... 2 1h
Sweet Tone, 115, Waterbury, 5 42
The L. Robesia, 115, O'Neili, 6 5
Kuth Parrish, 110, Cochran. 3 31
Hopetul Miss, 115, Odom... 1 2h
Step Aside, 110, Michaels... 7 6
Fine Fieur, 110, Bolesen... 5 8
Genagoge, 110, Gannon... 4 7
Vagary, 115, Rice...... 9 9
Semitic, 110, Martin...... 10 10
Start good... Won easily. Time—Martioram. from the Beln Marjoram, from the Belmont stable started for the first time in this race She made a show of her field. She went to the front at the start, made all th running, and won in a big gallop by half street. a dozen lengths from Sweet Tone, who was a very easy second five lengths in front of Lady Rohesia SECOND RACE. One mile.

One mile and an eighth.

Buntling, a former Sheriff of Kings County. That amount was fixed as security in each case, but Judge Thomas said that $5,000 would be sufficient. The District-Attorney informed the Court at that moment that the Grand Jury was prepared to return further indictments against Mr. Driggs shortly,

The returning of the bills and the proceedings that immediately followed did not occupy more than five minutes. Shortly before 3 o'clock Hugo Hirsch, attorney for Driggs, was notified that his client was to be indicted and that he had better get bondsmen. Butting was at once sent for and the trio went before Judge Thomas in company.

The former Congressman pleaded for the scene and pleaded for the street of the former Congressman pleaded for the scene about two and a half miles.

THIRD RACE

One mile and an eighth.

Starters, whts. jocks. St. Hif.Fin. Str. Pl.

Daisy Green, 111, Bullman. 3 1% 11% 10 10 20 11.

Daisy Green, 111, Bullman. 3 1% 11% 10 10 20 11.

Daisy Green went to the front and slayed there all the way. Dekaber was second around the first turn, but gave way to Ada Nay, who lay alongside Daisy Green to the head of the stretch. Eugenia Burch and Dekaber lay a couple of lengths away. At the head of the stretch Ada Nay fell back beaten and Eugenia Burch, coming through on the rail, closed rapidly. Daisy Green won in a drive by a length and a half from Eugenia Burch, who was the same distance in front of Dekaber.

FOURTH RACE.

Steepleshase; about two and a half miles

Almanzor made the running in the early part and then gave way to Jim Newman, who showed the way by the club-house on the second time around. A bad stumble gave Alamanzor the lead was third, four lengths away. Rector

LIPTON HERE WITH A RABBIT'S FOOT

Burch in Easy Manner at Ten Sir Thomas, Arriving on Oceanic, Gets a Rousing Welcome and an Invitation to the White House—He Predicts Shamrock III.'s Success-J. P. Morgan, Too, Returns and Wrathfully Dodges Camera Men.

That the affection of New York for Sir Thomas Lipton has no diminished was shown this afternoon when he arrived on the Oceanic. All the way from the Narrows to the White Star pier the big liner moved to the music of tooting whistles and hearty cheers.

Sir Thomas was delighted as a boy at the evidences of good feeling and announced that if he does not succeed in lifting the cup in August he considers it his duty to make another attempt.

J. Pierpont Morgan, also a passenger on the Oceanic, was quite overlooked in the furore that resulted when the Reception Committee that went down the bay to meet Sir Thomas climbed aboard

Members of the Morgan firm met Mr. Morgan at Quarantine, and while Sir Thomas spoke of yacht racing Mr. Morgan conferred with his men of business about business and conditions in Wall

ERIN GAYLY BEDECKED.

The foggy weather outside retarded the progress of the Oceanic and it was past noon when the familiar scenes inside the Horseshoe greeted the eye of Sir Thomas Lipton. His steam yacht, the Erin, fully fressed with flags, was awaiting the Oceanic in the Lower Bay and escorted the big ship to Quarantine. J. Pierpont Morgan's Corsair, also bedecked with flags from stem to stern, swung in alongside just below the Narrows with the steam yacht a hot pace for a quarter, but Herbert gradually closed on the Daly horse and at the end of six furlongs had him beaten. In the run home Herbert draw away and won as he pleased by five lengths from Locket, who lasted long enough to beat Blacktock a head.

THERE RACE.

THERE RACE. John D. Crimmins, David Barrie, Henry Siegel, B. J. Greenhut, Thomas Barrett, H. E. Taylor, John Arbuckle, Joseph Butler, E. C. Rand, J. R.

Wilson, G. W. Scott, N. Y. Y. C., and H. Kier Davies, Sir Thomas Lipton's representative. As soon as the ocean vessel stopped at Quarantine to let the Health

(Continued on Secon age.) SIXTH RACE. Starters, whits, jocks, S. Luminosity, 113, Cdom, Pacentral, 96, Pisher, Lady Lavish, 104, Fuller, Lietaway, 105, Wilkerson, Rector, 105, Martin, Jennico, 94, Connell, Auf Wiedersehen, 97, McCffy Sterling Belle, 103, Coch'n, 1798ca, 36, Breeden, Symphony, 94, O'Brien, in Montior, 106, O'Keilli, 11 Start fair, Won driving, 13 Luminosity took the l